

Please Join Us for Our Annual Spring and Summer Workshops

We are the leading nonprofit in Massachusetts serving grieving children, teens, and families. Our staff at The Children's Room offers a series of workshops that provide practical information and strategies to address challenging topics related to death, divorce, illness, or any crisis of loss. These workshops are open to the community, and continuing education credits are available for participants.

Workshops run from 9:30am – 4:30pm at our house in Arlington.

Each workshop has two scheduled dates:

Teens in Transition: Understanding the Challenges of Loss in Adolescents

March 6, 2010 | May 22, 2010

If We Lost Uncle David, Why Can't We Go Find Him?

Strategies for Talking with Young Children about Death, Dying and Loss

March 13, 2010 | July 19, 2010

Fostering Resiliency in Children Coping with Death, Illness and Other Losses

March 20, 2010 | July 20, 2010

Supporting Young Adults Coping with Loss

April 3, 2010 | July 21, 2010

Workshops are presented by Deborah Rivlin, Director of Education and Training. Deborah has been a bereavement educator for over thirty years.

A Certificate of Attendance is given to all participants and is PDP eligible.

CEU's and CE's for social workers and licensed mental health counselors are available for an additional fee.

Registration Fees

$100.00 per workshop

$90.00 for early registration, at least one month prior to workshop

Payment by check to The Children's Room or cash accepted.

A minimum of eight participants is required for each workshop, so please register early!

If a workshop is cancelled due to enrollment, full payment will be refunded.

Cancellation Policy

A full refund will be issued if an e-mail notice is sent to Deborah.Rivlin@childrensroom.org at least two weeks prior to the workshop date.

In the event of an emergency or illness, credit will be given for a future workshop.
